Beginning Tomorrow-Greenhut's Annual Sale of

"Used"Pianos&PlayerPianos

Player Pianos Week

The biggest and best opportunity of the entire year to buy Pianos and Player Pianos of world-famous makes at mere fractions of their original cost.

It is in this event that we plan to clear our salesrooms of all "used" instruments accepted in exchange transactions; also an attractive collection of instruments which are practically brand new, except that they have been used for demonstration purposes in our salesrooms.

You are absolutely on the safe side in making your selection during this underprice event, because every piano and player piano has been put in first class playing condition.

The single aim of this sensational sale is to sell every instrument on our floor that is not a make which we carry in stock regularly.

The list for your choice includes Pianos of world-renowned makes, and we emphasize that of these there is only one of a kind. Therefore the biggest "bargain plums" in this sale will naturally fall to those who come earliest.

The prices are unquestionably the lowest that have ever been quoted for instruments of such well known makes in equally good condition.
